Corporate Lodging Consultants Cuts Business Lodging Costs Workforce Travel Solutions On View At Renewable Energy World in Austin, Texas

Wichita, Kansas (Feb. 9, 2010) – As crews travel across the country to meet the needs of the booming renewable energy market, Corporate Lodging Consultants (CLC) can provide the business lodging programs that will save them money.

CLC will showcase its workforce lodging solutions in Booth 851 at the 2010 Renewable Energy World Conference and Expo in Austin, Texas, Feb. 23-25. As the largest negotiator of hotel rates in North America, CLC can optimize savings for companies that travel to support today's wind, solar, biomass, geothermal and hydrogen technology industries.

Any size company can realize significant savings on its workforce travel with CLC's lodging programs. CLC serves large companies that need a custom lodging solution as well as smaller businesses with fewer travelers. CLC's CheckINN Direct program focuses on small to medium-sized companies with 1 to 50 travelers.

"The rapid growth of the renewable energy market has created challenges for the construction, maintenance and services industries as it seeks to meet varied opportunities," says Todd Bierk, CLC National Account Manager.

"CLC improves your bottom line by saving you money at each location," he adds, "with rates that are pre-negotiated at hotels nationwide. We further simplify your process through direct bills that improve tracking and reduce paperwork. Whether the job is transporting a turbine and tower, project development in rural locations or installation or construction of any type of renewable facility, CLC has a hotel and lodging program set up for your workforce."

For industries developing the future of energy, the savings represents money that can be directed elsewhere. "Renewable energy is an important investment for our future," says Tim Downs, CLC President. "CLC can help the renewable energy industry by saving money on their business lodging costs, freeing up resources for other uses such as research and development."

CLC also will be attending SPECS, a Chain Store Age event, March 7-10 in Kissimmee, Fla. (Booth 1317) and GlobalShop, March 10-12 in Las Vegas (Booth 5032).

Businesses interested in learning more should contact Chris Stansbury, CLC's Executive Vice President of Sales, at (913) 232-5810 or cstansbury@corplodging.com, or visit CLC Booth 851 during the Renewable Energy Conference and Expo. Businesses that want to sign up for CheckINN Direct can use key code REWPR to waive the $9.95 enrollment fee for new clients.
